

Graduates of '47

BON VOYAGE CLASS OF '47 -

Good Bye

H. H. S.

(Hillside High School)

"The Alma Mater"
(School Song)

Hillside High! Old Hillside High!
We cherish thee with Honor
As - come play, we're far away
We'll praise thee with our hearts
We'll be true forever,
To a school so dear
You will live forever
Through all eternity

(Then Exclaim)

SENIOR SUPERLATIVES

TRAIT

GIRL

Best Looking	Mildred Grady
Most Attractive	Dorothy Faucette
Cutest	Lillie Jones
Most Likely To Succeed	Bernice Hunter
Most Studios	Lucille Dawson
Smartest	Margie Johnson
Most Courteous	Geraldine Williams
Most Ambitious	Lavonia Ingram
Most Glamorous	Eva Duren
Most Talkative	Sadie McCullum
Most Cooperative	Luttie McClary
Most Popular	Alice Sneed
Neatest	Lena Tapp
Best Dressed	Lucy Durham
Quietest	Dollie Swann
Friendliest	Josephine Freeman
Best Dancer	Vivian Conway
Best Singer	Helen Brown
Shortest	Malie Black
Tallest	Johnnie Nelvin
Best Athlete	Ludie Lewis
Coollest	Katrina Blackwell
Sportiest	Ernestine Corbitt
Silliest	Nezzie Woods
Best Jiver	Geraldine Noel
Most Serious	Julia Spencer
Minded

BOY

William Springfield
Ervin Wiley
Ervin Wiley
William Reaves
Herbert Parker
Davis Martin
Kenneth Slade
Clifton Brown
Carl McLendon
Willie Alston
Nedum Thompson
Edward Stewart
James Watson
Clyde Richardson
James Lambert
Joseph Lipscomb
Robert Hilliard
Roosevelt Lipscomb
William Allen
Robert Sellers
William Springfield
Gaither Markham
James Shepard
John Smith
Harry Gilmer
Benson Lawrence

CLASS SONG

By MILDRED GRADY
(Continued from Page One)

We owe a lot to Hillside,
Owe our success to Hillside,
Owe happiness to Hillside,
And we'll all pretend
This is not the end.
Today we cry for Hillside,
And say goodbye to Hillside.
We're leaving you,
But we'll always be true.
We always will love dear Hillside.